September 10th – Everything In Between (Bud Daniel Park)

Everything In Between formed in August of 2015 and quickly escalated as a musical force. When asked about the type of music EIB performs, the answer was always the same. "We play everything from rock, classic rock, red dirt, modern rock and everything in between." This is the basis of the name and motto for the band, Everything In Between. The name encapsulates the band on many levels, from the years of experience, song selections, and influences including their musical backgrounds that each member brings to the table. Some of the musical influences from each band member bring range from Tom Petty, Tool, Pearl Jam as well as The Kinks, Alice in Chains, Paramore, Flyleaf, Evanescence, Joan Jett and many more. What this means is there are no boundaries set on the type of music a fan may hear at any given show. Since we have been going through changes, the differences will only continue to define who we are as a band. No limits, no definition, just good music and fun times!
