City of Wichita Falls Hires Local Tennis Pro

Wichita Falls, Texas – The City of Wichita Falls is excited to announce the unanimous vote of approval from the City Council to hire local tennis pro, Michael Turner, and his company, Falls Town Courts, to manage the Hamilton and Weeks Park Tennis Centers. Michael brings with him 21 years of experience as a tennis pro.

Turner's management company will be responsible for overseeing and leading all tennis programs as well as operating and maintaining the facilities. Hosting large tennis tournaments in Wichita Falls once again will be another goal for his company. In addition, the City is looking forward to being able to offer pickle ball as eight new courts are being built at Weeks Park Tennis Center. Turner's team will manage that as well.

Assistant City Manager Blake Jurecek, who oversees all Parks and Recreation divisions, said, "Michael has the right qualifications and a tremendous tennis following. It was encouraging to see the local support for Michael at today's City Council meeting. Anytime we can hire someone local who has the skill set and background needed, it benefits everyone. We are excited and ready to see more tennis/pickleball activities at our City facilities."
