Free Outdoor Concert Series Set to Begin

Wichita Falls, Texas- The City of Wichita Falls Parks and Recreation Department invites you to our 2023 Outdoor Concert Series. The James Cook Band will be performing on Tuesday, May 9, 2023, at Bud Daniel Park - 900 Ohio Ave. Wichita Falls, TX 76301. The concert is free and will be from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

James Cook is drawing inspiration from evocative stories around the Red River, the Wichita Falls, TX native's penchant for superb narrative lyrics and riveting vocals delivers an impactful punch for this "rootsy" collection of songs that blends folk-rock, country, and Southern blues hues, with equal parts grit, sorrow and heart.

With his band, Cook brings down the house with explosive shows at the hottest TX/OK bars and giant performances to include TX Festivals such as Outlaws and Legends Festival, Music Fest in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, and Ranch Bash in Ft Worth, TX.

The James Cook Band will be burning up the highway in 2021 and they are anxious to be back at it. With James Cook (lead vocals, rhythm guitar), Tim Maloney (bass), Ricci Amador (drums), Ian Clark (keys), and Zach Holliday (lead guitar/steel guitar).

The Parks & Recreation Outdoor Concert Series features musicians representing a variety of musical genres. Come out and join the fun with your family and friends. Bring a lawn chair or blanket and enjoy an evening of free entertainment. For questions, please contact the Recreation Division at 940-761-7490.
